

Immediately to Finishing Processes – Advantages

- Reduced job through put times as there is basically no waiting time between the printing process and finishing
- Reduced space requirements due to less piles (half finished palettes or small piles)
- Reduction of bonded assets
- Fast invoicing

The chart below should only represent the reduced throughput time of one LE UV print job produced on a straight printing press.

