Procedure of a paper waste workshop

As part of a paper waste workshop, you will learn from our HEIDELBERG Business Consultants on how to increase your productivity and reduce your paper costs.

The rising material cost that continue to rise in price is a large part of your production costs. An optimized use of material therefore has a triple impact: It saves production time, paper costs and natural resources. A clear benefit for your company.

Expected results:

- Assessment of the machine condition
- Detailed performance indicators
- Alignment of leadership (goals, understanding of roles)
- Qualification of employees
- Reducing paper waste
- Regular review of sustainability

Ø Reducing paper waste
by 5 % – 40 %.

The large number of successfully completed projects and references is convincing. Contact us and learn more about our methods. We are looking forward hearing from you.
