

Production times must be reduced

- Reduced job through put times as there is basically no waiting time between the printing process and finishing
 - Reduced space requirements due to less piles (half finished palettes or small piles)
- Reduction of bonded assets
- Fast invoicing

The chart below should only represent the reduced throughput time of one LE UV/LED print job produced on a straight press.

